

HOME / A&E / CELEBRITY NEWS
NAMES

One for the record

The Boston Globe

By Mark Shanahan & Paysha Rhone
Globe Staff / October 30, 2008

Email | Print | Single Page | Yahoo! Buzz | ShareThis

Text size - +

Ken Casey (right) and the Dropkick Murphys presented Mayor Tom Menino (left) with the band's Gold Record Award at McGreevy's yesterday (above) on behalf of the local music community. It will reside in a bar display case dedicated to Boston's history of baseball, music, and politics. Also in the case: a Boston history book signed by Mayor James Michael Curley and Menino.

ADVERT:

DeVry University
We major in careers:

BUSINESS ADMINISTRATION

- Accounting
- Finance
- Health Services Management
- Hospitality Management
- Operations Management
- Project Management
- Security Management
- Sales & Marketing
- Entrepreneurship

INSIDE BOSTON.COM

CAMPAIGN FASHION

Politically suited: Top 10 campaign fashion stories

A SOLDIERS' FAREWELL

Scenes from a ceremony on